

Some members on the Bible Baptist float Saturday are shown above, Brittany Boring, Bailee Allen, Tammy Bryant, Elizabeth Eaton, Hanna Bryant and Lindsey King.

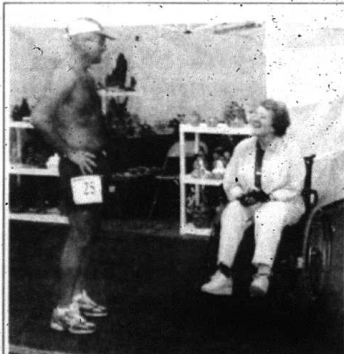

SPC Medical Equipment's float.

Shown above after the 5K run, which was part of the Bittersweet Festival held last weekend, are Mike Barr, President and CEO of Health Essentials, the main sponsor of the run, his wife Lynette, daughter Bobbi Jo, Janie Crumer and Donna Kaye Owens. Barr was also the Grand Marshal of Saturday's parade.

The Pine Hill Missionary Baptist Church had a booth at the Bittersweet Festival over the weekend. The largest crowd ever attended the event.

James Bullen, a former winner of the 5K run, talks with Bernice McHargue, coordinator of the Bittersweet Festival, before Saturday morning's run.

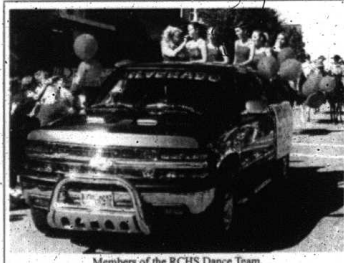

One of Rockcastle County's newest industries, King Bottling, had a booth at the Bittersweet Festival which was held over the weekend in Mt. Vernon. Shown above, from left are Gary "Seymore" Barnett, David King and Ray Lear.

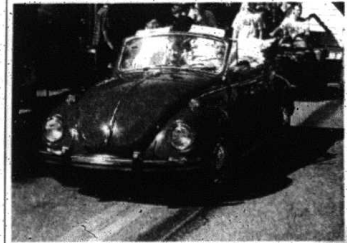

The Wildcat football team.

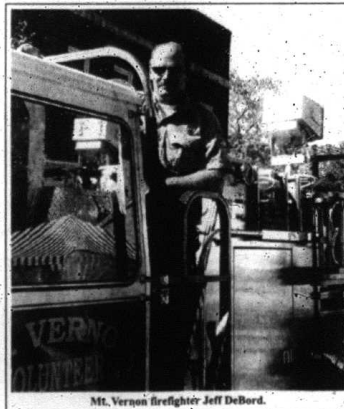

Mt. Vernon firefighter Jason Haniel brought one of the local fire department's truck to Saturday's parade. With him are his daughter Sierra Haniel and Samarah Lovins.

Members of the RCHS Dance Team.

Jeff King and Mark Eaton in Jeff's 1971 VW Bug.

Mt. Vernon firefighter Jeff DeBord.

Rockcastle County Judge-Executive Buzz Carltoftis, left, and Rockcastle County Attorney Jeff Baidette, right, were all smiles on Saturday, while attending the Festival.