

T.J.'s Journal

For the past few days, I was wish I lived at Frankfort. Our house is otal disarray with floral arrange-its and floral supplies cluttering ost every corner due to the prepa-nt of flowers for the almost every corner than to the preparation of filowers for the upcoming marriage of Stanley's daughter, Kayla, However, our house susplice and the standard of the standard o

It seems to me that Dr. Fletcher is It seems to me that Dr. Fletcher is the king of the mudshinging. In order to do what he is promising, he will have to turn his back on all of this fellow physicians and pharmacist friends to lever medical bills. How guilible does he think we are? Then he is ntilling about all of the seniors when have been believed to the distribution of the seniors when have been believed to the seniors when have been believed to the seniors when have been believed to the seniors when have been the lever to the seniors when have been the lever to the seniors when have been the seniors when he was the seniors when have been the seniors when he was a senior when he was the senior when he was the seniors which we want to be a senior when he was the seniors whe in before the campaign began. It is seems that all of the TV news crews around the state as well as the newspapers missed this great exchain of the elderly. Then the ad that is really outside the state of the stat victory by a small margin. Who knows, it may turn out okay after all. We had a reasonably good president who was an actor a few years ago. It can say all of this because at the time who was an action a few 'years ago, 'an asy all of this because at the time this will be read, the election will be over. I wouldn't want to take the politicans.

Around election time, I'm often reminded of two unique but true stories. The first story is about my grandparents, Roscoe and Evelyn Norton just after they were married. It was in 1920 in Clarifield, Tennessee and the amendment had just passed allowing women the right to see and the amendment had just passed allowing women the right to vote. Election Day came and my grandparents went to the small one-room school in riail Tennessee; to vote. This was quite an event as it was the first time if the history of the United States that women had voted. There was a big turnou. Extending to allow their wife to vote and who wasn't. This was where the single fadies had the advantage, unsingle fadies had the advantage, un-less their fathers didn't allow them single fadies had the advantage, un-less their fathers didn't allow them to vote.

Upon arriving at the school of the control of the control ouring mis era, every wire nad an opiniom...her husband's.

The next story is about an elderly farmer who shifted into a Geieral Store in Taylor County, Kennucky back in the J950s. He was a typical-looking old farmer. He had snowy white hair, tattered overalls, workboots, a pipe dangling from the corner of his mouth, wore wire-rimmed glasses, and was bent over due to age and years of hard work. The Jocal paper was taking a poll about one of the local boys that was running for state office. They asked the old gent will be used to be a fine of the state of the all CHA plans, &

all United Healthcare

plans. We are also a

Medicare/Medicaid

provider.

No referrals needed for Dr. Meyer to treat you. and all of his family. He went to church and Sunday school every week, has been a good boy to his kin-folks, and always helped friend and for a man like that. The old man said, "Wouldn't want to see him go to Frankfort, and come back home ramblings....

by perlina m. anderkin

For the first time in 32 years, Kentuckians awakened Thursday morning to a Republican Governor-Elect.
I'm glad but, regardless of what Rick said in his column last week, I

Rick said in his column last week, I was really ambivalent about the recebecause I felt that Ben Chandler had actually done an admirable job as Attorney General and would have done a good job as, Governor.

1 am Republican, but I am not Republican compation ever walk into Republican compation ever walk into a voting booth and pull the straight Republican toket. It may just be 1 cenjoy pushing baitons too misch to even was one and this electrican was even to be the publicant between the publicant betwe l'enjoy pushing buttons too much only push one and this election w no exception only push one and this election was only push one and this election was only push one and the left of the left of

Friday night.

The weather cooperated and everyone had a great time. The sense of camraderic was prevalent and it was a highly successful social occasion and lucrative "candy spot" for the children.

A lot of the event's success can be attributed to the great weather but also to the hard work of Lynr Gillert and Martha. Cox who spent hours organizing the event. Every town needs hard workers who spend hours giving their time to better the community in which they live, and Martha, once referred to as the "shadow government" by County Judge Buzz Carloffis, has gotten another helping hand in Mrs. Gilbert.

I appreciate their efforts and other who helped, such as Troy Hamsel (and I have now officially gotten myself in trouble because I don't know everyone who helped, I'm sorry and hope the event will be repeated next year with added enter-tainment for the children.

Sorry and hope the event will be repeated next year with added enter-tainment for the children.

There are those who constantly stirled and think good watching the children and counting up the good will the town will reap from the event.

There are those who constantly at the fine the child the significant of the constantly and think good watching the children and counting up the good will the town will reap from the event.

There are those who constantly sit and think about what they can do to and think about what they can do to improve our community. Okay, I'm not one of them but I deeply appre-ciate those who do.

Our Readers Write

Dear Editor,

Dear Editor,

Moving from a large city (Cincinnat) to a small town has been a great pleasure. It was with added delight on the same and the same and win a prize!)

Thanks for such a great treat, Mt.

Dear Editor,

On Sunday, November 2nd, we had a birthday party for four and six-que-ol-olds at Pizza-Hu at Blurr.

As -everyone was enjoying their pizza, my girlfriend looked over to talk to ber mom. A mouse was crawling up the wall behind hoe, We let it go so it wouldn't take the fun out of the party. Then, all of a sudden, we heard a loud screeching sound and it was the mouse-caught; still alive, on a sticky trap in an opening between booths.

a sticky tap in an opening retween booths.

When the kilds discovered the mouse, even after we tried not to let them know, you can imagine the commotion it caused.

When we paid our bill, we told the cashier and she was not concerned and acted like it was an everyday thing.

So, the next time you go to Pizza
Hut for supper or have a birthday party there, will you be dining with

rs "Not" Always Right, Jeff Richards Marsha Banks

Dear Editor,
On Friday night, Mt. Vernon's Main Street was blocked off, businesses set up tables on the street and over one thousand children trick or

This was one of the most successful and certainly the most fun things full and certainly the most fun things the control of th This was one of the most succe

The Renaissance Committee is to commended for having a great idea. Along with that idea went a lot of hard work.

of hard work.

We were told that the Mayor opposed doing this next year because it interfered with one business. The Mayor should remember how vial
and alive Main Street was on Fixed inght. All businesses on Main Street
loes some business during parlies festivals, etc., but they know that whatever loss is incurred; it is the best investment they can make for future business.

As for me al am looking forward to trick or treating next year.

Sincerely, Dr. John Parsons

Dear Editor.

What a wonderful time it is to be at Kentuckian Thanks, to all those who cared enough about our Commonwealth to get out and vofe. We now have a new governor and a new ray in Kentucky, a post and the series of the is a man of character and compa-sion and we are extremely lucky to have him as our next Governor. The words to our state song, "The sun bright on my old Kentucky ords to our next (governor. The ords to our state song, "The sun innes bright on my old Kentucky ome" will truly have new meaning. Again, thank you to everyone that or out and voted on Tuesday. Better you are ahead of us under the lead-ship of Ernie Fletcher! God bless. Sincerely.

Sincerely,
Travis T. Burton
Rockeastle County
Young Republican Chairman

Dear Editor,
I operate the Rock of Ages Mission in Brodhead. It is Saturday, No I operate the Rock of Ages Mission in Brodhead. It is Saturday, November I and I just read an article in today's Lexington Herald. It says: "Report: Hunger grows in the U.S." Report: Hunger grows in the U.S." Report: Hunger grows in the U.S." and the same of the same of "Christmas Time! Christmass Tyyyyym m m m m m e! Christmassssssssstiyyummme! (God I y y y y y, m m m m m e. Christmassessessityyummurel (God knows I wish I could pen the music along with the lyrics as your pianolesson-taking kid could plunk it out there on the lyroites) but you know the song and you know that its like an aprophodesic that makes women all over the country go to spending money like it grows on trees instead for having any interest in semueline up with these sustainer.

Just this morning, my wife, Loretta, left hone wayry before dawn to catch a tour bus, along with my normally, sensible-daughter, Jennifer, who teaches ABCs; and 1,2,7% and life values to innocent first gradules for Garrard County, and they nifer, who teaches ABCs, and 1,234 and life values to innoent first graders here in Garrand County, and they took off with a huge bunch of other women to visit skopping centers in Tennessee with the single goal of shopping until they keypped. Turns out most of the four group consisted of teachers, including principals, who are on Fall Break and apparently long-jolpus for the hubbies are cheap in Tennessee.

are on Pair Isreas an apparently of the properties of the properti

if we men know the difference. Run to the Fishing Tackle, Golf Stores, or Dawhares and Buy'us a bainelf of sunfi hat don't catch fish and has no place in our tackle box, balls we couldn't shoot ten yards with a cannon, or get us a sweater, way to small, or some-silk boxer shorts (you gotta be kid-ding).

ding).
It's not even Thanksgiving here in Paint Lick. The jack-o-lantern is still out in the front yard and the mums are still blooming. There's no. sign of a turkey on the premises and the only hint we have of Thanksgiving is the sage and parsley and rosemary that may, eventually, become season stuffing, thriving in my herb bed.

But I digress.
Ladies, if you missed the bus trips to Tennessee, and they seem to be the thing this year, I have wonderful news. I have, along with various ac-cessories, several of which were well-meant Christmas presents in the news, rawe, along with various accessories, several of which were essenties, several of which were essenties, but a several of the past, a base-boat, which, with a bit past, a base-boat, which, with a bit of waxing coald look; last like new. I paid $7,000 (basement price from a guy who had clear title but had to flave the cash right then) for it show to several the past of the cash right then) for it show it was since I bought it. In the meantime, I've spend over $700 for a new carpet, more than $500 for a new protection of the past of the and we spent three days-each, sandand we spent three days-each, sanding down the trailer and repainting

it. (The paint -10 cans @ 18 bucks)
only cost $180 plus tax and it sure time and effort would cost $1,500 at any body shop in the country). And did I mention new depthinder? 9.2
model, 115 HP Mere so fast it that will scare you on a 19 foot Stratos and you can park it under the tree if you put the tree out in the jarneg and make about 25 feet of froom.
I could go on all night, but this boat could make your husband happy and even keep him out of the house
for days at a time.

and even keep him out of the house for days at a time.

Bottom line is that I have over. $10,000 invested in this baby and, while it has been a great yard orna-ment, I do e willing to part with if for half that. Actually, if I don't go for if before Christmas, Loretta is gonna be hurting for underwear come the new year.

LOST DOG

LOST DUG
A black tab/Rottweiler mix is missing from the home of Barbara Collins on Hwy. 150.
The dog, who answers to the name Bläckie, has been gone about two weeks and the family would appreciate any information as to his whereabouts.
If you have seen the dog we mation as to his whereabouts. If you have seen the dog wor know where he is, please call 758-0036.

Mount Vernon Signal

Publication Number 366-000 Periodical Postage Paid in Mt. Vernon, Ky. 40456 606-256-2244

Published every Thursday since November, 1887, Offices in the Mr. Vernor Signal Building on Main Street in Mt. Vernon, Ky. 40456. Postmas send address changes to P.O. Box 185, Mt. Vernon, Kentucky 40456.

James Anderkin, Jr., Publisher Emerisus - Richard F. Anderkin, Edisor Perlina M. Anderkin, Managing Edisor Paige Benge, Advertising Manager SUBSCRIPTION RATES

In County - $16.75 Yr. Out-of-County In State - $21.75 Yr.
Out-of-State $30.00 Yr.

e-mail address - mvsignal@sun-sp

"It is Written"

"In Isaiah 6, Ezekiel 1, and in Rev-4-5 are three great texts. What they have in common, is that they are throne scenes of God. In Isaiah's day the threat was the Assyrians. In Ezekiel's day it was the Babylonian threat. But he lesson to learn from all 3 texts is that God is on the throne, He isin controlland He is bigger than any dominating power the world may have. No matter what the devel may hard at the people of God, we have nothing to fear, for God is on the horne. "So that we may holdly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not four what man shall do moto me." Heb 13 6, Jesus said it this way, "And four not them which is the five, but are not said to be to the three t

Providence church of Christ Dan McKibben-758-9316 - E-mail: Dan McKibben@Junc Web Site: www.WhatSaithTheScriptures.co ime of Services. Sunday 10am Bible Study, Worship 10:40 & 6:00pm Wednesday 7:00pm. Radio program, Sunday 8am, 1460 AM Comp injuries covered at 100% Street • Mt. Vernon (Former KU Bldg.

MASSAGE THERAPY AVAILABLE AND COVERED BY

MANY LOCAL INSURANCES other insurance companies cover chiropractic, we will be bappy to verify your chiropractic coverage for you. All Auto-Accidents & Workmen's

Mt. Vernon Chiropractic

and Pain Center

Dr. Meyer is proud to be a provider for all major medical insurance companies serving this area. We now accept all

Anthem Blue Cross/Blue Shield plans, 606-256-1986