Boys' Advance to State with 4th Place Finish

RCHS girls' Cross-Country team wins second straight regional championship

The RCHS cross-country teams competed in the Class 2A Region IV Championships held at Millennium Park in Boyle Country this past Seiturday. The competition featured three of the top ten gint's teams in the state, as well as the control of the top ten gint's teams in the country of the top ten gint's team in the country of the top ten gint in the state in Class 2A, Regional rivin the state in Class 2A, Regional rivin and Lexington Catholic came into the meet ranked 9th. The RCHS girls team has bad a spectacular season, the state of t naro-rought race, obtaining a visqui-note injury the entire time. She had actually taken two days of practice off prior to the regional meet. Her gutsy performance helped her finish in 23rd place o'verall with a respect-able effort of 25/13.54. RCMS 8th pretacular first season of cross-country. The past few weeks, courtney had been very ill. Just be-fore her illness, Courtney was con-sistently running under 23 minutes. Still suffering those effects, Courtney had been very ill. Just be-fore her illness, Courtney was con-sistently running under 23 minutes. Still suffering those effects, Courtney had been very ill. Just be-fore her illness, Courtney was con-sistently running under 23 minutes. Still suffering those effects, Courtney had been very ill substitute. Still suffering those effects, Courtney had been very law to a server in Amar Sudiolity, running in her last regional cross-country meet, came through with a great performance. Anna finished the 5,000-meter course in 34th place overall with an excelin 34th place overall with an excel-lent time of 28:00.87.

in 34th place overall with an excel-lent time of 28:200.87.
When all was said and done, the RCHS girls "had won ship's second straight regional champefosship title, defeating Boyle Courtey by one point, 37-38. Lexington Catholic finished and with 71 points to the state cham-les. The state of the state of the state of the point of the state of the state of the theory of the state of the stat

Are The Holidays Running Away With Your Money

The RCHS boys' team began the season ranked 9th in the state in Class' 2A. After dropping out of the top ten, ho bys have worked hard to work their way back to the elite of Class. The boys' got off to a first start in the race. Senior Andrew Nelson, ranked 20th in the state, and junior Brandon Cole, ranked 19th, led the way for Rockestale early in the mac. Eventually, Brandon made his way nor and the start of the pack. He finished an amazing race in 3rd place overall with a spectacular performance, possibly the best ever for an RCHS boy in regional competition. His time of 17:49-33 was only twelve seconds behind winner Partick Morseconds with winner Partick Morseconds behind winner Partick Morseconds with winner Partick Morseconds behind winner Partick Morseconds behind winner Partick Morseconds behind winner Partick Morseconds with winner Partick Worseconds with winner Partick Worseconds with winner Partick Worseconds wit

RCISS boy in regionat computed list time of 17:49.53 was only twelve seconds behind winner Patrick Morgan, one of the top five runners in the state in Class. 2A. Andrew remained close to the front and finished an impressive effort of 18:18.17, despite having battled illness late in the season. Justion Bill Burdert continued to run as well as he has in the past few meets. Bill finished an impressive 8th overall with a superflort of 18:41.44. RCMS 6th grader Blake Parsons ran a spectacular race, effort of 18:41.44. RCMS 6th grader Blake Parsons ran a spectacular race, finishing in 27th place overall with an exceptional effort of 20:37.11. Sophomore Derrick Baker, in his first season of cross-country running, per-formed very well: Derrick finished

RCHS sophomore Kayla Hay won her second straight region er second straight regional pionship. She currently eventh in the state in Class

RCHS sophomore Jessi Asher finished fifth in the regional championships.

State Cross-Country Meet this Saturday

> Stop By Or Call Us Today ... e'll "Stuff" Your Wallet With Cash!" HEIGHTS FINANCE CORPORATION

drew Pensol ran an awasome race and finished 48th overall with a very impressive effect of 24-bit formace and finished 48th overall with a very impressive effect of 24-bit formace and a second of the closest regional finishes over among the top four teams. Boyle County took the peam title with 44 points. Lexington Catholic placed 2nd with 54 points. With 62 points, while Rosikoasti's 75 points placed them the finished 3rd with 62 points, while Rosikoasti's 75 points placed them 4th. The boys' great team effort also earned them an opportunity to compete in the state championship imeet. The Class 2A State Cross-County Championships will be held this Sautrday at the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington. The girly' are begins

MVES third grader Michael. Hunter placed eighth in the re gional meet. Michaela is arguably

The RCHS girls' cross-country team captured their second straight Class 2A Region IV Championship title this past Saturday at Boyle County. Team members include, front from left; Elizabeth Bussell, Michaela Hunter and Jessi Asher, Back row from left; Kayla Hayes, Heather Hammond, Anna Guilfoil and Courtney Bullock. Not pictured was Ashley Bullock.

The RCHS-boys' cross-country team placed fourth at the Class 2A Region IV Championships, earning a berth in the state championships. Team members include; Andrew Pensol, Derrick Baker, Brandon Cole and Bill Burdett, Not pictured were Andrew Nelson and Blake Parsons.

End season with win over Knox Central, 55-6

ROCK to host Lawrence in first round of play-offs

By: Richard Anderkin
Friday night the Rockcastle
County Rockets will begin the playoff part of their season in an effort to off part of their season in an error to win their fourth straight regional title. The Rockets have also been state runners-up in Class 3A the past two

The Rockets ended the regular season 8-2.
This Friday the Rockets will host Lawrence County in the first round of the play-offs. The Rockets have the Lawrence County three times before in the play-offs and have won two of the three games.
Rocket head coach Tom Larkey, said the like his team's chances said he like his team's chances

"We will have to do a good job of tackling, because they run the ball most of the time," be said. If the Rocketts win on Friday night they will have to face a Mason County team, which is highly respected and a team Larkey said is very capable of winning the regional ride." against Lawrence County, a team that is 6-4 and also has to make the two and half hour trip from Louisa.

specied and a leam Larkey saul is specied and a leam tarkey saul is every capable of winning the regional title. County has at Jeast four distances prospects and are 70 to the county has a least four officers. On the county has a least four officers of the county has been decided and the county of the county points.

Quarterback Matthew Burkhart

beautiful two touchdown passes and had Quarterback Matthew Burkhart threw two touchdown passes and had 101 yards passing. Both his comple-tions were good for touchdowns. He also had ten yards on three carries. Freshnan Izak McQueary com-pleted one pass, which was good for a two point conversion.

t. Shown above is Ricky Sandusky re cher and Caleb Blair making the hit.

ocket defensive back Brandon Reams brings down a Panther run-r in Friday night's 55-6 win. The Rockets host Lawrence County Friday night in the first round of the play-offs.