Rockcastle County Senior Citizens Center recently enjoyed an outing that included a gospel show at our own Remfo Valley Entertainment Center, followed by dinner at Ryans in Richmond.

Important Notice to All Customers of Western Rockcastle Water Association

It has come to our attention that some of our customers have been visited by supposed representatives of our association and asked to set up appointments at night to come into their home to test their water. This is a scam and we are not testing anyone's water - these people do not represent Western Rockcastle Water Association. If anyone has been contacted in this manner, please call our office at 256-8283 and provide us with any information you can help us stop this scam.

DO NOT let anyone into your home who claims to be affiliated with our water company unless they can prove they are from Western Rockcastle Water Association or unless you contact our office first.

It is very unlikely that any serviceman would need to enter your home for any reason, unless at your request, or unless we are having a water problem in your area.

Denver Burton, President
Western Rockcastle Water Association

"Fletcher"

Although he lost to Greg Stumbo in the race for Attorney General, career politician and loser, Gatewood Galbraith, received 449 votes in the county.

Besides the Republicans taking the Governor's seat and the seat of Commissioner of Agriculture, Trey Grayson, a northern Kentucky lawyer, who is just 31, won the race for Secretary of State. As in the Governor's race, he will be the first Republican Secretary of State since 1971.

Rockcastle voters pulled the lever for Grayson, 2558 times compared to the 867 times they voted for his opponent, Democrat Russ Maple. 3,981 Rockcastle countians went to the polls on Tuesday, or approximately 34 percent.

"Carloftis"

Local builder Jimmy Brummet of Brookhead helped Carloftis with this project.

Another recent charity event participated in by Carloftis was the Victorian Society Scholarship Fund. The scholarship fund is headed up by the Malcolm Forbes family and Steve Forbes' son and family are friends of Carloftis who spent a week at their ranch last winter.

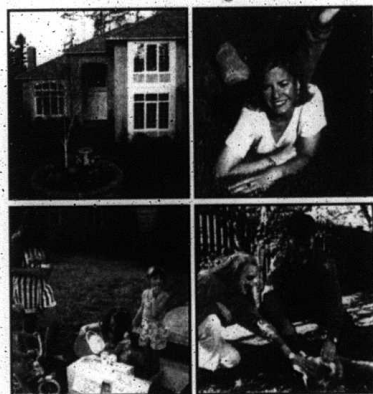

Carloftis' contribution to the fun was a city garden consultation and design. Carloftis is considered an expert in rooftop gardens, balconies and courtyards. His work has been featured in The New York Times and on ABC's Good Morning America. Carloftis has designed gardens for many prominent New Yorkers.

Carloftis is the son of Mrs. Lucille Carloftis of Livingston and the late Carlos Carloftis.

Tuesday, 34 percent of Rockcastle voters went to the polls. Shown voting at West Brookhead is David McCauley, as his son Luke, waits to cast his ballot. Ernie Fletcher got more votes, 313, in West Brookhead than any other precinct in the county. Also in the photo are election officers, Sherry McKinney, T.G. Lawwell, Mary Lawwell and Joan Cash.
