In Memory

My Granny

By: Granddaughter
Libby Gail Ramsey
My 93 years old granny was a remarkable lady.

She grew up in a hollar in Kentucky. We have shared a lot of memories over the years. We have both learned a lot of things from each other over the years.

I will always treasure those moments, sitting on her lap in the swing on the front porch with her singing songs and telling me stories. Her mind was as strong as ever and she was still learning.

She has brought a lot of color to my life that I will treasure for the rest of my life.

My Father, Dewey Robinson

By: Cleo Winkler, Crivington, Ky.
I should have gotten up this morning at three.

Just lay there, lary as can be. Father's Day just passed, this is about my Dad.

Married my mom, February, 1920. Having eleven children ain't that a plenty?

Ruby and Robert died before a year old.

Was hard on our parents we were told.

We lived on a farm, enjoyed a good life.

Daddy used the belt, there wasn't much strife. Flat rock Baptist, he was a deacon and singer.

We all walked, knew better than to linger.

Mom had our dinner and everything was good.

Us girls did the dishes and all that we could.

January, 1942, God called Mom to her home on high.

Nine of us children, cried, had to say goodbye.

Daddy's Job at Andrew Steel mill in Newport.

With all us kids, he had to support. He hired Lucy our neighbor's girl, across the hill.

To live with us, so the boys could run the mill.

We had chickens, cows, pigs, plenty to eat.

To all of us that was really neat. Cecil was married and had a little girl.

To mom she was the sweetest in the world.

Cleo married John, then Ed and Esther, they move away.

To Covington, working with Dad, they all to stay.

There's Bub, Clebert, Evelyn, Paul, Mattie left at this home.

Goodness we can't leave them all alone.

So, Daddy's stepmother, called Mary Ray.

Says, "I'll keep them children," so that settles that.

November '42, Daddy finds a woman, what does he do?

They tied the knot, her name is Maque Lou.

Mattie & Paul, 6, Evelyn & Clebert 10 and Bub 12.

With all these children this woman will dwell.

Daddy went back to the farm with his children and wife.

They all grew up have made themselves a good life.

Dad, mom and Mammie born in 1900, over a century ago.

Had all its children, grands, greats and the love of Jesus they did show.

Cleo and Bob have gone on to Heaven.

Thank God there is still here, us seven.

Mammie left us July of eighty-one. For dad and kids a good job done.

Be good to your fathers and treat them well.

God may call soon, you never can tell.
