They Let Her Come Home

She was thirty-six. We fought it together. Fought hard. We spent night after night in the hospital together over more than 17 months. We got Hospice involved because Debbie wanted to be at home. She wanted to see her garden and be in her own house. Hospice made that possible. Hospice let her keep her dignity. Hospice. They let her come home.

Card of Thanks

Herman Handley, Sept. 12, 1917 - Nov. 16, 2003. Along with our mother Spella, Herman Handley's wife 56 years, we would like to thank all those that were so kind to us during Dad's illness and death.

Our thanks go to those that sent flowers, food, Bibles, or spent time with us and to all the ones that said a prayer. We'll always remember the ministers Kenny Davis, Ova Land and Steve McKinney for the words of consolation and encouragement.

Others we thank are the pallbearers, the Rockcastle Hospital Health nurses and Dr. Johnstone and staff members, Sandra Williams and William Jones for the beautiful songs and music that Dad had chosen, also the staff of Lakes Funeral Home.

A special thanks to Marsha Danarell for taking care of Dad and sharing our grief and to our beloved friends, Carolyn and Eugene Brandenburg for the many hours of love and thoughtful caring.
