"IT IS WRITTEN"

In a letter of dedication by the translators of the King James Version of 1611 is this statement: "So that if, on the one side, we shall be traduced by Popish Persons at home or abroad, who therefore will malign us:—Think about this statement: "Popish Persons" who shall traduce, malign, vilify, slandered against the good work of translating the word of God into the common language of the people "Popish Persons" are people who want to keep folks in ignorance and darkness. We all know the sinful rebellion of Popes of Rome. But, these kinds of "Popish Persons" have been around since the first century. "I wrote unto the church, but I wrote unto the church, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth it not. Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words, and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church." The man of sin talked about in 2 Thess 2:3-7 represents this attitude. "Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped, so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God." v. 4. Yes, "Popish Persons" are arrogant rebellious people when it comes to the will of God, they have a mind of their own, not the mind of Christ.
