Hamm - Thornton vows said

Rachel Danette Hamm and Clayton Evans Thornton were wed at the Ottawa Baptist Church on Saturday, June 7, 2003 with Bro. Jim Craig officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Danny and Regina Hamm, granddaughter of Alonzo and Anna Mae Hamm, Donald I. Hopkins and the late Bethada Hopkins. The groom is the son of Glenda Thornton and the late Charlie Thornton, grandson of Nell Thornton and the late E.W. Thornton and the late Woodrow and Macil Clayton of Madisonville.

The bride was attired in a cathedral-length veil and a white, strapless floor-length wedding gown embellished with lilac, silver and white beading and complimented with a three foot train.

Julie Branshaw was the matron of honor. Bridal attendants were Tammy Miller, Amy Clifford and Lesley Clifford. Their apparel included strapless, floor-length gowns, adorned with a chiffon scarf, all in Victorian Lilac.

The groom, best man Ryan Hancock and groomsmen-Ross Woodward, Jessie Hamm and Luke McCall wore traditional black tuxedos.

Usher Jon-Wilton and Morgan McCall also wore black tuxedos. Flower girl, Madison Miller, was dressed in white and carried a basket of pink rose petals while ring bearer, Logan Miller was dressed in a black tuxedo.

Ceremonial music included vocalists and piano/guitar accompaniment by Ashley Clark, Stephanie West and Mike Carpenter, with technical assistance by Josh Bray.

Musical selections during the ceremony included, "When You Say Nothing At All," "I Will Be There," and "Forever and For Always."

Guest book attendant and greeters, included Diane Smith and daughters, Leslie, Jamie and Jonie. Flowers in the wedding included boutonnieres and full, beautiful bouquets of white and pink roses with purple wax flowers and misty blue accents.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church's Fellowship Hall. Serving the brides' table were Audrey Hamm, Kathryn Pope, Debra Lowell, Karen Gobin and Teresa Brown. The wedding cake was a white, four-tiered cake with many delicate details and a decadent chocolate, two-tiered groom's cake was topped with chocolate icing.

Everyone who attended and participated in this memorable event is appreciated and a special thanks to Mrs. Donna Hopkins and Mrs. Claudina Cash for their coordinating contributions.

Following the ceremony, the couple enjoyed a two-night stay at the Historical Union Station Hotel in Nashville, TN, followed by a honeymoon cruise to Cozumel, Mexico. The couple has since taken up residence in Madisonville.

No paper next week

"It Is Written"

In Matt 7:21-23, we read, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven: but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity." Notice that Jesus is talking about religious people in our text. People who claim to follow the Lord. Not doubtful, lazy people in religious activity, but religious folks who claim to do many wonderful works for the Lord. Yet Jesus tells these very active religious people who call upon him as Lord, depart from me, in the day of judgment. Were they hypocrites? NO! Were they immoral wretches? NO! Were they diabolically mean people? NO! Jesus gave the reason why they were rejected, they were workers of iniquity. What is iniquity you ask? It is lawlessness, illegality, not subject to law, doing things that are not authorized. We must be able to give book, chapter, and verse for all that we practice as religion. "And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him." Col 3:17. Over the next few weeks we want to look at some of the many works of iniquity that are being practiced in religion today.
