

First & Farmers National Bank announces area promotion

At a recent meeting of the First & Farmers National Bank Board of Directors, Vice President Commercial Lending Officer Jeremy Reynolds was promoted to President of the Somerset market.

President Jeremy Reynolds joined First & Farmers National Bank in April 2010, bringing to our bank a wealth of knowledge with his ten years of prior banking experience. Reynolds currently manages a portfolio in excess of twenty million dollars. Jeremy grew up in Rockcastle County, and graduated from Rockcastle County High School. He then attended Somerset Community College & Midway College, where he earned his B.A. in Organizational Management. During his college years, he began his banking career. In 2011, Reynolds graduated from The Graduate School of Banking at Louisiana State University. Jeremy and his wife, Kristen, currently reside in Somerset along with their daughter Brooklyn. Jeremy is the son of Rick and Joy Reynolds, also of Rockcastle County.

Since locating in Pulaski County, Reynolds has been involved in numerous Somerset-Pulaski County civic service and professional development events including the local Chamber of Commerce, and his family currently attends Oak Hill Baptist Church. Reynolds is a member of the Pulaski-Somerset Morning Rotary club and has served on the local RAM Medical Clinic board. Jeremy presently serves on the Board of Directors for the Master Musician's Festival.

Regarding his promotion, Reynolds states, "I am very honored to be appointed as President of First & Farmers National Bank, Inc. Somerset/Pulaski market. FPNB is a longstanding financial cornerstone of this region. I am excited to lead a talented team of bankers who are dedicated to the betterment of their customers and community. I look forward to visiting throughout our market area to promote the custom-fit banking opportunities that we provide. I welcome everyone to stop by one of our six local offices and get acquainted with me and our entire banking team."

Chief Executive Officer/President Steve U. Morgan states regarding this promotion, "Jeremy's knowledge and willingness to be a team player has been a true asset to our company. He has successfully managed a large loan portfolio, and has worked diligently to develop many customer relationships. His desire to see the bank grow and his dedication to the Somerset market are attributes desired in an area President. Jeremy shows great promise in his ability to lead and has garnered respect from his colleagues."

First & Farmers National Bank has assets in excess of $487 million, offers 12 banking locations, is a member FDIC, and serves the financial needs of customers in Somerset, Albany, Columbia, and Burkesville.
