

Adoptable Shelter Dogs

Hi! My name is Rascal and I am a male Cocker Spaniel mix. I was surrendered by my owners and I am now in need of a new family. I am approx. 5-6 months old and I love to run and play. I make friends with everyone I see and I never meet a stranger. If you would love to have me as your companion then please contact the Rockcastle County Animal Shelter @606-256-1833. (kennel #6)

Hi there! My name is Buggy and I am a male Beagle. I was picked up by a lady as a stray on Acorn Ln. and brought to the shelter and I now am looking for a new home. I am about 1 1/2 years old and I am very gentle and easy going. I would make a wonderful pet for anyone willing to give me a chance. If you could help me then call the shelter @ 606-256-1833.

Community art project

This Saturday, April 27th from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. the Church Street Art Center (located behind Hiatt's 5 & 10 building and across the street from courthouse) will welcome Rockcastle residents to participate in a community art project. We are looking for individuals that will paint a scene or icon of the four seasons: Spring, Summer, Fall and Winter.

Artist Troy Hansel will be on hand to assist us with our painting project. The artwork will be assembled into 3'x 3' panels that will be installed downtown Mt. Vernon this June. A list of the individuals that have participated will be hung with the artwork. Please be a part of this project that will beautify our downtown area.

If you have any questions, please call Courtney Hale at 392-9264, Janetta Begley at 256-1357 or Lynn Tatum at 308-4646.
