

RCHS Track and Field honored their two seniors during a home meet last week. Shown above is senior Bryonna Cromer. She has competed in cross-country, as well as almost every event in track and field at some point in her career. She has helped lead her team to several indoor state championship titles, as well as several regional track championship titles and many top six outdoor state finishes. She has also been a part of many regional champion and runner-up teams in cross-country. Bryonna plans to pursue a degree as a nurse after graduation. She is the daughter of Tracy Cromer of Brodhead and Kris Cromer of Mt. Vernon.

Shown above is Amy Johnson. Amy has distinguished herself as one of the greatest throwers in the history of Rockcastle County track and field. A state champion in discus and a two-time state champion in shot put during indoor season, Amy ranks # 2 all-time at RCHS in both events with another month to go in her senior season. She has been named KyTrackXC.com indoor field event athlete of the year and has helped lead her team to several indoor state championship titles, as well as several regional track championship titles and many top six outdoor state finishes. She has been named academic all-state and first team all-state in discus. Amy will be attending Lindsey Wilson College on a full track and field scholarship this fall. With Amy in the photo are her mother, Lisa Johnson and Coach Mark Brummet.

Cheyenne Gilliam gets a hit during last Friday night's loss to Mercer County. The Lady Rockets also lost to Garrard County 2-1 on Tuesday and are now 3-20 on the season.

Second baseman Kayla Cromer makes a throw to first during last Friday night's 7-5 loss to Mercer County. The Lady Rockets next game is this Thursday night when they will host the Wayne County Cardinals. Opening pitch is at 6 p.m.

RCMS baseball honored their 8th grade players last week. Eighth graders shown above, from left are: Isaiah Mercer, Dustin Taylor, Carson Noble, Tommy Bengé, Austin Saylor, Isaac McClure, Thomas Burdette, Ryan Martin and Lucas Gentry.

First baseman Chris Wren stretches to get a runner out during last Friday night's 5-0 win against Whitley County. The Rockets will also be hosting Little League Night this Friday, Military Appreciation Night next Monday and Senior Night next Thursday during their home games. Free admission for all active and retire military personnel during Military Appreciation Night.

Damien McDaniel gets a bunt during last Friday night's win against Whitley County. The Rockets next game is this Thursday night when they travel to Boyle County to take on the Rebels. First pitch is at 5:30 p.m.

John Hughes takes a swing during last Friday night's 5-0 win against Whitley County. The Rockets are now 16-10 on the season.

7th grader Lea Ellen Rogers makes a pass in the Lady Rockets' loss to Monticello. The girls lost the match 1-2. Also pictured is Lauren King.

Rachelle Doan puts up a serve in the 6th grade's match against Monticello last week.

8th grader Brianna Lay tosses up a serve in Lady Rocket volleyball action against Monticello. The Lady Rockets lost the best of 3 match 1-2.

AUTO FINANCING?
WE CAN HELP!
 Call Amy or Bill or apply online
mannchrysler.com
859.625.1422
Mann

Property & Casualty
www.cmicpinsurance.com
 Brenda Lovell, Agency Principal, Vice President

OFFICE LOCATIONS
 Barboursville (KY) (606) 546-5600
 Berea (KY) (859) 228-0410
 Cincinnati (OH) (513) 605-3500
 Florence (KY) (859) 525-7114
 Toll Free: (877) 421-6221
 AUTO - HOME - BUSINESS - HEALTH - LIFE

Email sports items to mvsignal@windstream.net