

State Representative David Meade attempts to dunk State Senator Jared Carpenter at the Republican Party's dunking booth at Brodhead's Dix River Festival last Saturday.

The fourth annual Brodhead Hustle was held last Saturday at the Brodhead Elementary School as part of the Dix River festivities. Shown above are runners after the horn sounded to start the race. The race began and ended at the school. It also featured a different course this year with the new route going through downtown Brodhead.

Dale Doan, 47 of Brodhead was "put in jail" last Saturday by some of his relatives. The pretend jail was sponsored by the Dix River Festival Committee and the cost was $5 to put someone in jail and $5 to bail them out.

Local Bluegrass band Level Green performed on stage at the Dix River Festival last Saturday. Various other bands and entertainers also performed on stage throughout the festival.

Dalton Simpson, 7, of Copper Creek is all smiles after sliding down one of the inflatables. available at Saturday's Festival at Brodhead.

Party Central of Lexington provided the three inflatables at the Dix River Festival last weekend.

Lily Cameron, 3, of Brodhead was laughing as she slid down one of the inflatables at the Dix River Festival.

Several vendors set up at the Dix River Festival last weekend. The festival takes place every year on Memorial Day weekend.

AUTO | HOME | LIFE | BUSINESS | A MEMBER SERVICE | KYFB.COM

Ask your agent about our safe driver discounts.

If you've gone 3, 5 or even 8 years without an accident or claim, talk to your local Kentucky Farm Bureau agent about our Safe Driver Discount*.

* Discounts subject to eligibility.

Marlene Lawson, Agency Mgr.
Shelly Mullins, Agent
US Hwy. 25 S • Mt. Vernon
606-256-2050

Addison Carter and her uncle Jeff Thompson with David's Tire Center were all smiles as they waved to the crowd from their semi seat.

KENTUCKY FARM BUREAU

BIG ON COMMITMENT.™