

McDaniel - Lawrence

Mr. and Mrs. John and Charlotte Burton are happy to announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Destiny McDaniel to Mr. Dustin Lawrence, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry and Jeanine Lawrence.

Destiny is a 2008 graduate of Rockcastle County High School. After high school Destiny attended Eastern Kentucky University and completed her Bachelor's Degree in Social Work. Dustin is a 2006 graduate of Rockcastle County High School. He is currently employed at TTAI.

Dustin and Destiny will be exchanging vows on Saturday, September 28, 2013. The ceremony will take place at Brodhead Baptist Church at two o'clock in the afternoon. A reception is to follow. All family and friends are invited to attend and share this special day.

Jackson Energy holds customer appreciation in Rockcastle County

Hundreds of Jackson Energy members were on hand last week for the cooperative's Rockcastle County Customer Appreciation Day. Co-op members gathered at the Western Rockcastle Water Association Office in Mt. Vernon to enjoy hamburgers and hot dogs in the late summer sunshine.

Door prize winners were – Emanuel Rader, flat screen tv; Scott Mays, electric fan; Russell Poynter, 75th anniversary pitcher and glass set; Mark Teague, water hose; William Duda, electric iron; Phyllis Deatherage, hedge trimmer; Harris Burton, bug zapper; and $750 college scholarship, Carlotta Morgan.

In addition to the customer appreciation events,

Rockcastle County Judge Executive Buzz Carloffti signed a proclamation making September 20 Jackson Energy Day in Rockcastle County in honor of the cooperative's 75th anniversary.

The proclamation noted that since 1938 Jackson Energy has "brought many civic and economic benefits that our community has enjoyed over the years" as the co-op extended electric service to Southeastern Kentucky communities.

"As a cooperative, our members are the owners of our company," says Jackson Energy President & CEO Carol Wright, "and this is one way we can extend our gratitude for their support."

To Be Wed...

Ms. Diane Smith and Thomas Kidwell, along with Mr. and Mrs. Justin and Tonya Prewitt and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph and Anna Robinson, would like to announce the upcoming marriage of their children, Megan Rachelle Kidwell and James Robert Prewitt.

The wedding will take place at Calloway Holiness Church Church on Saturday, September 28, 2013 at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. A reception will follow. All family and friends are invited to be present as our children join in holy matrimony.

Livingston to host second Rockcastle's Got Talent

The Livingston Community Lions Club will be hosting the second annual Rockcastle's Got Talent on Saturday night, November 2nd at the Rockcastle County High School auditorium beginning at 7 p.m. The show will be open to persons living in Rockcastle County, even if they participated last year. The application will be ten dollars per act again this year.

The divisions will be Children 12 and under, Teens 13-17, Adult duets, Adult Soloists, and Adults in Groups of 3 or More. Last year's winner, Julianna Singleton, will be performing at some point during the show. There will be an overall Grand Champion winner as well as first, second, and third place winners in each category, and honorable mentions.

The club is working hard to make improvements over last year with even bigger and better awards.

Tickets will be 6 dollars for adults, 5 dollars for teens, and children 3 and under free. Contact information to register and where you may purchase tickets will follow shortly. Watch the Signal for more information. All proceeds will aid in the Livingston Community Lions Club to serve. Mark your calendars now for a most exciting evening of local talent.

EKU invites alumni, friends to Homecoming

Eastern Kentucky University graduates, their families and other friends of the University are invited to the Richmond campus Oct. 18-20 to celebrate Homecoming 2013, "Building Tomorrow's Traditions."

Thousands are expected for a weekend full of festivities, floats, football, family fun and fellowship.

"It's a great time for students, faculty, staff, alumni, family and friends to come together to celebrate the difference Eastern has made in so many lives," said Jackie Collier, alumni relations director.

Activities on Friday, Oct. 18, include reunions for Beta Theta Pi, Department of Recreation and Park Administration, College of Justice and Safety, and the Association of Fire Science Technicians; and open houses at the Alumni House and Wellness Center.

Activities on Saturday, Oct. 19, include the 36th annual Homecoming Run and the Homecoming Parade, which has been moved to an earlier time of 10 a.m. along the traditional Lancaster Avenue-Main Street route. Early bird registration ($15) ends Oct. 9. Registration after that date will be $20. For additional race entry information, email greg.corack@eku.edu or visit www.campusrec.eku.edu/eku-homecoming-5k-2013.

The largest tailgate party on campus, the Colonel Tailgate, runs from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. in the Alumni Coliseum Parking Lot. In addition, numerous campus departments and organizations have scheduled reunion events Saturday, including the Department of Family and Consumer Sciences, Beta Theta Pi and the Association of Fire Science Technicians.

Also on Saturday, open houses will continue for the Alumni House and the Wellness Center.

At 3 p.m., the Colonels will take on Ohio Valley Conference rival Tennessee Tech at Roy Kidd Stadium. The coronation of a Homecoming king and queen will be held at halftime. Game tickets may be reserved by calling the EKU athletic ticket office at 859-622-2122 or, toll-free in Kentucky, 1-800-262-7493, ext. 2122, or by visiting ekusports.com.

The weekend will conclude Sunday, Oct. 20, with EKU Keeneland Day at the Races. Tickets are $50 on a first-come, first-served basis. For reservations or more information, contact Donna Lazzara at donna.lazzara@eku.edu or 859-622-2836.

Also, the Student Alumni Ambassadors and Student Government Association are joining forces to collect 7,000 jars of peanut butter for the Peanut Butter for Children in Haiti drive. Alumni, families and friends may drop off their peanut butter jars at the Alumni House now or during Homecoming, or at the Homecoming Tailgate (EKU International Alumni Association table) in the Alumni Coliseum lot on game day.

For more information about any of the Homecoming activities, visit alumni.eku.edu/homecoming-2013-schedule or contact the Alumni Relations Office at 859-622-1260 or, toll-free in Kentucky, 1-800-262-7493, ext. 1260.

Judge Executive Buzz Carloffti signs a proclamation making September 20 Jackson Energy Day in Rockcastle County. The proclamation was in honor of the cooperative's 75th anniversary. On hand for the signing was Jackson Energy President and CEO Carol Wright.
