Mt. Vernon Lions donate to "Shop With A Lion"

Mt. Vernon Lions Club President, Mike DeBord presented Lion Bobby Kendrick, treasurer with a check for Shop With a Lion.

Mt. Vernon Lions Club, through donations from individuals, businesses and organizations sponsor the program.

Shop With A Lion allows children in the county to travel, with members of the club, to choose their own Christmas gifts. Social Services provides the club with the names of children they have selected. The children enjoy shopping at WalMart in Berea and having lunch at McDonald's before going and upon returning.

First Christian Church and the Rockcastle County Sheriff's Department provide transportation.

The children are supervised by Lions Club members, sheriff's department personnel and some parents of children.

The club is still accepting donations and these may be made by contacting Lions Club President Mike DeBord at 606-308-3488.
